They could create matter with the powers of their minds. Any element, any molecule, any form; they could call it into being with a thought. Even living flesh. They could travel to the edge of their universe without ships to carry them, and send their minds to visit other worlds without moving a step. All knowledge and learning was theirs for the taking. They never tired, never hungered. They had peace and purpose, and, eventually, fulfillment. And they knew where they would go when, at last, they died. But then.the Beyonders came.
