Excerpt: .just as the first gray streak of dawn spread above Totapella peak. The mist was hanging heavily on the lower parts of the plain like a.-thick snowbank, although the sky was beautifully clear above, in which a few pale stars still glimmered. Long lines of fog were slowly drifting along the bottoms of the valleys, dispelled by a light breeze; and day fast advancing bid fair for sport; a heavy dew lay upon the grass; and we stood for some moments in uncertainty as to the first point of our extensive hunting-grounds that we should beat. There Were fresh tracks of elk close to our lodge, who had been surveying our new settlement during the night Crossing the river by wading waist-deep, we skirted along the banks, winding through a narrow valley with grassy hills capped with forest upon either side. Our object: in doing this was to seek for tracks Where the elk had come down to drink during the night, as we knew that the tracks would then lead to the jungle on either side the river. We had strolled quietly along for about half a mile when the loud bark of an elk was suddenly heard in the jungle upon the opposite hills. In a moment the hounds dashed across the river toward the well-known sound, and entered the jungle at full speed- Judging the direction which the elk would most Probably take when found, I ran along the bank of the river, down stream, for...
