Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The House of Love In every life there is a long, long night of waiting, yet somewhere, it may be beyond the reach of human sight, there always shines the Star of Hope against the purple robe of darkness, and sometime, somewhere, its gleam will fall across life's pathway, and while it shines the heart shall forget its sorrow and disappointment in the wordless joy of love and fulfillment. Feet may grow weary, hands may be tired of holding the tangled skein of life, and shoulders may ache beneath the burden of the slow-dragging days; but there is a road, a road that never turns back, leading on and on through all the days of endless waiting, and all the nights of tortured sleep. A road ever winding beneath the twilight skies, and ever lighted by the sunsets crimson gleams. It is the road that leads to The House of Love. For, out through the years that are ever thralling, And up to the gates of Heaven above. There is just one path that is calling, calling. It's the path that leads to The House of Love.
