Section 11. Employment certificates shall be of two classes--general employment certificates and vacation employment certificates. General employment certificates shall entitle the minor, 14 to 16 years of age, to work during the entire year. Vacation employment certificates shall entitle the minor, 14 to 16 years of age, to work on any day. except on such days as such minor is required to attend school, under the provisions of the laws now in force or hereafter enacted. Section 12. The official authorized to issue a general employment certificate shall not issue such certificate until he has received, examined, approved, and filed the following papers, namely: a. A statement signed by the prospective employer, or by some one duly authorized on his behalf, stating that he expects to give such minor present employment, and setting forth the character of the same, and the number of hours per day and per week which said minor will be employed; b. A school record, as hereinafter provided; c. A certificate of physical fitness, as hereinafter provided; d. Proof of age, as hereinafter provided. Section 13. For the issuance of a general employment certificate, the school record required by this act shall be filled out and signed by the principal of the school which the minor has last attended, or...
